

To all the cheery readers out there,

Thanks for opening this letter and taking time to read. You are my biggest blessing and I hope you will find a blessing in this letter.

Praising God:

Here are my top three praises to God this week:

1. Many family members had to travel for different reasons - God gave traveling mercies and took them all to their destinations safely and back home again. Safety is of the Lord! (Proverbs 21:31)

2. Two of my children attended memorial services for loved ones who passed away recently. Praise be to God for gospel messages in each service and for one who immediately responded and said I need to be saved now! 2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is . . . not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

3. Despite a fall this week, the Lord kept me from get hurt in any major way except for bruises and a few pains here and there. He definitely gives His angels charge over thee. (Psalms 91:11)

There are actually so many things I could praise the Lord for. Have you counted your blessings this week? Leave a comment and Tell me one praise that you have.

Recent Posts:

1. Are You A Writer? This post is not what it sounds like. I hope you will click on it and read it.
2. 21 Prayers for my Grandchildren - Anyone can pray for their grandchildren this way!

Good Deals and Freebies:

School will be here soon. Here are some resources for you. Don't ever get out of "God's School" Remember Romans 11:33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

Pick up this free printable which includes Scripture verses on wisdom along with an envelope and a printable that's frameable.

Books and Kindle Books - Never put these books above the greatest book, God's Word. I hope you're meditating on it every day.

Have a great week

Blessings,

Ellen at Joyful Abundant Life